Spring

February–May

- When it's still too early to see much green, Dutchess County maple producers are hard at work in their sugarhouses turning sap into sweet maple syrup. Visit in March for one of New York State's Annual Maple Weekends to enjoy tastings, brunches, tours, demos and more at local operations like Soukup Farms in Dover Plains.
- Sample spring flavors at Harney & Sons' Millerton tea shop, where you can warm up with a cup of one of their 250+ varieties of tea just a stroll away from the Harlem Valley Rail Trail.
- Enjoy a wine tasting or a full glass in front of the cozy fireplace at Millbrook Vineyards & Winery. Then savor a delicious dinner at Canoe Hill, a farm-to-table restaurant in Millbrook.
- The next morning, grab breakfast and a cup of award-winning coffee at Irving Farm New York's Millerton café before meeting marvelous Scottish Highland calves through a hands-on farm tour at Elk Ravine Farm in Amenia!

The Millbrook Inn, Millbrook

Millbrook Vineyards & Winery, Millbrook

Country gardens and estate grounds are in full bloom starting in spring! Find the flowers on tours, walks and events throughout the county.

Soukup Farms, Dover Plains

Summer

May–August

- Summer is sweeter when you can pick your own ripe, juicy fruit at farms throughout the season, like Rose Hill Farm and Greig Farm in Red Hook and Mead Orchards in Tivoli.
- Put together a picture-perfect bouquet at Foxtrot Farm and Flowers in Stanfordville.
- Don't miss breakfast at Tivoli General, where every sandwich is built from ingredients grown by nearby farms.
- The Dutchess County Fair in Rhinebeck, held for six days in late August, is the second largest in the state with over 1,000 exhibitors showcasing everything from farm animals to flowers, all in the hopes of winning a prized blue ribbon. See antique farm machinery in motion. Rich, thick milkshakes made on Livestock Hill with Hudson Valley Fresh milk are an absolute must.
- Take a scenic stroll with llamas, goats, donkeys and more at Clover Brooke Farm in Hyde Park.

Fall

September–October

- Colorful fall foliage is nature's way of celebrating the harvest throughout Dutchess County. Take a hike to experience the autumn splendor around Stony Kill Farm or head north to Ferncliff Forest.
- Fishkill Farms in Hopewell Junction is a historic family farm with an assortment of heritage apple varieties and a selection of craft cider made onsite.
- Meadowbrook Farm in Wappingers Falls offers pick-your-own fun for the whole family, and don't forget to treat yourself to warm cider donuts at their well-stocked market.
- On Sundays, round out your visit with a trip to the robust Beacon Farmers Market.
- Head to Pawling in the morning for fresh-baked pastries at McKinney & Doyle, then take a walk on the Appalachian Trail with beautiful scenic views showcasing the changing leaves. Nearby, explore Dykeman Farm's pumpkin patches.
- Bring the family to Barton Orchards in Poughquag for Fall Festival weekends featuring live music, u-pick, hayrides and corn mazes.
